No one is immune to pain and suffering. No one is immune to failures and disappointments. All of these negative things are guaranteed in this world.

We live in an imperfect world. Jesus warned us about these things by saying: "I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world (John 16:33)."

In times of grief and sorrow, the words of God will keep you going and light up your darkest night. There's no storm too dark and too strong that He can't calm and carry you through. There's no bridge too far and too steep that He can't help you cross. Because He is so much bigger than anyone or anything you can face at any point in your life.

You can use the contents of this book to bring comfort to your situation, as well as in finding such a kind of peace that transcends all understanding.

God loves you.
